Psalm 2: 7—12

⁷ I will proclaim the LORD's decree:
He said to me, "You are my son;
today I have become your father.
⁸ Ask me, and I will make the nations your inheritance,
the ends of the earth your possession.
⁹ You will break them with a rod of iron;
you will dash them to pieces like pottery."

¹⁰ Therefore, you kings, be wise;
be warned, you rulers of the earth.
¹¹ Serve the LORD with fear
and celebrate his rule with trembling.
¹² Kiss his son, or he will be angry
and your way will lead to your destruction,
for his wrath can flare up in a moment.
Blessed are all who take refuge in him.
⁶ For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.

MHCC ANNUAL BUDGET FOR 2011

The MHCC Financial Budget (Budgeted amounts and Actual amounts) is attached with this Didjano. If you have any questions regarding this, please direct them to Peter Patroni, Treasurer P & F Committee or any of the other committee members—Graeme Jennings, Heather Brown, Ross Lantzke, Thelma Crisp.

I came across this short-term blog today which I thought some at MHCC might be interested in:

<http://paceebene.org/peb-update/vision-visitation-venture>

It is the weekly reflection of a man who began visiting churches in his neighbourhood last August to stand outside before worship with a sign saying 'Jesus says love your enemies. What does your church say?' and then join in the worship.

What I found most thought-provoking (and soul-teasing) is this man's ability to join with Christian communities vastly different to his tradition and try to hear God in their worship, and to learn from them, even when he visits with such a clearly declared stand-point.

SUNDAY LUNCH AND DISCUSSION AFTER THE SERVICE

After the service (Sunday 19th), you're all invited to continue the discussion on the Problem of Evil over lunch at our house (35 Hillside Crescent, Maylands, 9371 0721).

If you plan to come, could you please let me know so we can estimate the appropriate number of chairs and plates? Contributions to lunch are welcome.

Thanks,
Tricia

A BLESSING

May the feet of God walk with you,
And his hand hold you tight,
May the eye of God rest on you,
And his ear hear your cry.

May the smile of god be for you,
And his breath give you life,
May the child of god grow in you,
And His love bring you home.
